SPACE!

We live in it. We move through it. When we need it, there's never enough. When we have to clean it, there's always too much. Space has been expanding for billions of years, yet, for most of us, the only space that matters most of the time is within a few feet of us.

But space is not just physical. Whenever we grow — mentally and spiritually as well as physically — we expand ourselves into new space. We take those things that were unknown and strange and make them known and familiar.

This year has seen "Raider Space" grow much larger — physically, mentally, and spiritually. In the space between these covers, you will find the story of Rummel's 1985-86 growth in both outer and inner SPACE . . .

OUTER

SPACE

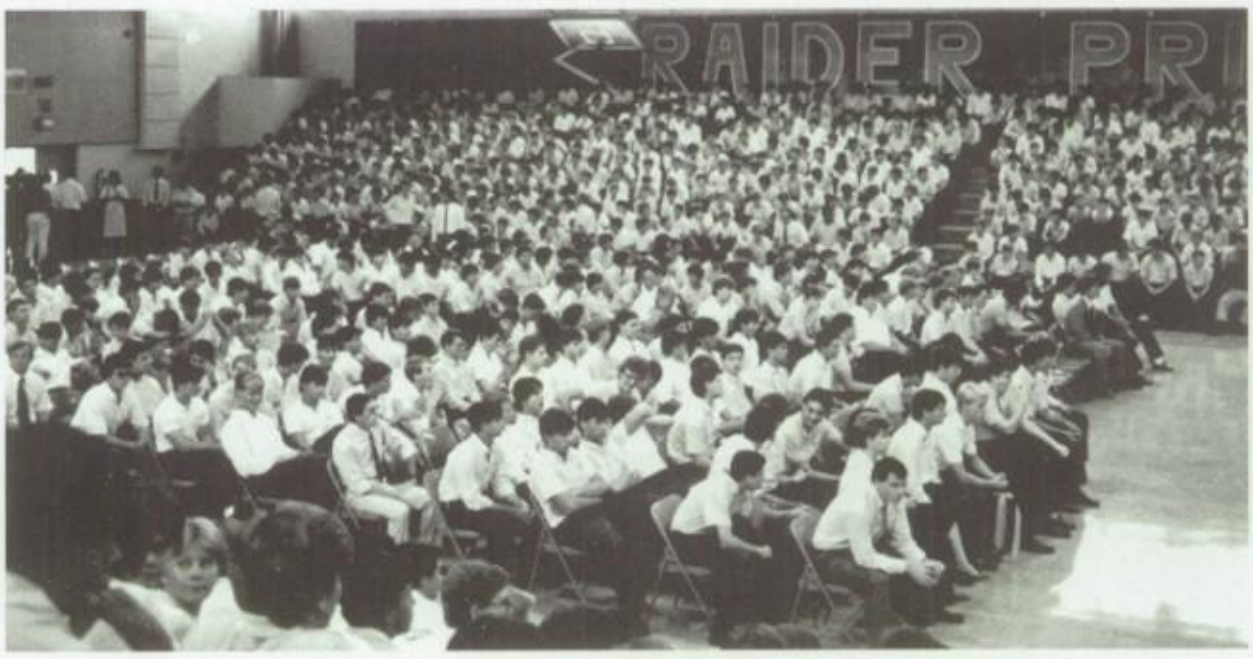
"Heading?" asked Mr. Sulu.

Captain Kirk leaned forward and stared at the viewscreen, his eyes filled with the wonder of plunging outward into the unknown.

"Out there," he whispered.

Well, not many of us will be faced with such an outer space decision. But Raider Space does include more than in-school activities. The wonder and excitement of plunging outward into the unknown are as much a part of Rummel as academics. Through extracurriculars we explore that strange world out there. We meet students of other schools, share ideas, compete, and make the unfamiliar familiar.

With intellect and spirit made strong in our inner space, we turn our eyes and interest to OUTER SPACE . . .



INNER

Within each of us is the potential to grow without ever getting any larger physically. In the few cubic inches behind our eyes rests a sponge which can hold as much information as we care to put into it — our brains, our minds. For six hours a day, we pour history and English, science and math, civics and foreign languages into this remarkable storehouse.

But our inner growth here at Rummel is not just intellectual. In our years here we expand our spiritual space through religion classes, school masses, campus ministry, and just being with good people. We grow in our desire for success and achievement by meeting the challenges presented to us both in and out of the classroom by our teachers. We learn responsibility, loyalty, pride, and caring in the busy world of our INNER SPACE . . .

Orientation

Moving for the first time into unexplored space can be one of life's most frightening experiences. For incoming eighth and ninth graders, this intimidating transition was softened a bit by Orientation Days.

Planned and conducted by teachers, administrators, and the Big Brothers, these day-long bridges into the world of Raider Space included speeches, small group discussions, tours of both campuses, prayer services, and an introduction to Raider Pride.

Poster Nights

What is two feet wide, six feet long, and screams spirit in Raider hallways? An official, freshman — produced, Big Brother — directed poster, that's what! Each week during football season, the ninth graders and a few others, meet in the main building on Monday nights to put their artistic talents to the test as they create colorful paintings and slogans which threaten a variety of unpleasant outcomes for the week's opponents.

HOMECOMING

"She walks in beauty . . ." — and there was plenty of beauty evident in the fall as the ladies of the homecoming court graced Rummel. The first activity of the season was the pre-election luncheon on September 16th; the nominees and their escorts, members of the football team, toured the school and met the student body. Elections were held that week, resulting in Michaela Rachal's being crowned queen and Julie Ballanco maid of honor.

Other members of the court included Michelle Boué, Colleen Camet, Angela Congemi, Dana Desroche, Michelle Hebert, Monique Lemoine, Candice Pfister, and Cheryl Suter.

The court was presented first at the Homecoming pep rally on October 25. Following the tradition of the night, the court proceeded outside, where Michaela lit the "Double R's." Bad weather the next night caused halftime activities to be rescheduled for the Chalmette game, where the court was presented and escorted by members of the Alumni Association. Michaela was officially crowned by last year's queen Kayla Braud.

Two final activities wound up Homecoming as the court was presented to the Parent Boosters on November 20th, and the semi-formal dance was held in the Superdome on the 23rd, where everyone danced well into the evening to the sounds of Heat. The court members were escorted by the presidents of the nominating organizations.

Football

Boasting a population of only twenty-two and covering an area of less than two acres, the small but mayhem-filled world of football saw great success for the Raider squad in 1985. Picked by preseason sages to finish no better than fifth in 11-AAAA, the Rummel eleven distributed a few surprises as they upset their way to a three way tie for the championship.

What they lacked in brawn and speed was more than compensated for by determination and well-drilled technique. A small but tenacious defense, its line averaging only 190 pounds and its linebackers a slender 158, was led by stalwarts Kevin Hebert and Warren Donley; and an offensive front wall averaging but 195 pounds sliced holes which freed runners like Greg Dauphin and Ray Rando to do their thing.

Football . . .

The first pre-season match foreshadowed things to come, as the Raiders dropped Hammond 20-6. A sluggish first half ending with the team in a 6-0 deficit gave way to a Rummel-dominated second half. Greg Dauphin carried for ten, twenty, and seven yards, Raymond Rando tacked on another twenty-four, and Barry Danna provided the scoring dive for the Raiders' first score. Earl Kilbride broke through later to block a Hammond punt and set up a score by Dauphin. Rummel's scoring was capped off by Darrin Dares' five yard run, and a miserly defense kept the hapless Tornadoes from inflicting any more damage.

The following week brought another one for the win column, this time against Higgins. Rolling up 296 yards and 26 points of offense, the squad reduced the Hurricanes to a mild breeze with only 48 yards on the ground and 7 points. A sixty yard pass from QB E. J. Daussat to Dares opened the scoring, and Ray Rando added another with a ten yard run. Later, a Hurricane aerial found the wrong target as Earl Kilbride alertly picked it off and returned it to the Hurricane's 39. Moments later, the final eleven yards were covered by Duane Bailey for the third TD. The Hurricanes were downgraded to a tropical depression as a Daussat strike to Nick Nunez drew blood for the fourth time to seal the Raiders' second victory.

Reality reared an ugly head the next week, as Covington handed the squad its first defeat. The Lions' outstanding quarterback J. D. Stilwell ran for two TD's and passed for another as the opposition posted 27 points to our 21. Scoring for the Raiders came on a bruising 19 yard run by Dares, a lightning-fast 89 yard kickoff return by Franklin Rhea, and a 38 yard Daussat toss, again to the fleet-footed Rhea.

It was Jesuit a week later, and this beginning of district play witnessed something of a minor miracle: the Raider offense turned a negative total yardage into two frantic scoring drives to emerge victorious. Throwing more interceptions than completions and snapping the ball only fourteen times in half number one, the offense entered the last twenty-four minutes frustrated and desperate. An exhausted defense was unable to stop two blue and white scores, but did swarm through to block the second PAT — a lost point which proved critical. After a Warren Donley interception, the rejuvenated Raiders mounted a 56 yard drive which culminated in Ray Rando's 25 yard romp to paydirt. Steve Barrouquere's boot was true and the score read 13-7. After a newly-heartened defense choked off the next Jay attack, the offense proved its mettle with an 89 yard journey to six. The score came, after a Daussat completion to Randy Strassel, on a 17 yard run by Rando. Barrouquere sealed Jesuit's doom with an unerring PAT.

In their second district contest, the Raiders held off a late rally from DeLaSalle. Rummel capitalized on two mistakes courtesy of the Cav's special teams. On the first, Randy Nicoll blew through the line to block a punt at the DeLaSalle nine yard line. Four plays later, Greg Dauphin carried for the score, with Barrouquere's PAT good. Just before half, Barry Danna recovered a Cav fumble on the opposition's twenty-five, and Barrouquere footed a 23 yard field goal to give the Raiders the winning edge. DeLaSalle's points came on a lone touchdown in the third quarter. A bit of a scare occurred late in the game as the Cavs mounted a drive, but failed to make an attempted field goal, leaving Rummel victorious with a 10-6 score. The surprising Raiders now stood 2-0 in district play.

It was victory, sweet and decisive, again the following week, as the squad used three big plays to topple the Holy Cross Tigers in the Superdome. Franklin Rhea took off down the sidelines for 61 yards before being caught from behind, and two plays later,

The team travelled to the Westbank the following week to meet the much-heralded and previously unbeaten Shaw Eagles. A quick strike from E. J. Daussat to Darryl Perrault gave the Raiders the lead early in the first period. The Eagles responded and drove to the Raiders' three yard line, only to be denied points by an inspiring goal line stand. A second quarter score by Greg Dauphin lifted the score to 13-3 at halftime, but Shaw rebounded after the break, scoring quickly on a 14 yard pass. They later added a three-pointer, but their hopes of a comeback were stillborn; Barrouquere added three to put icing on the Raiders' third district win.

After three weeks of district play, Rummel and Brother Martin were leading the pack, and it was time for the two toughest kids on the block to go at it. In the shootout the following week, the co-leaders scrapped their way to a stalemate for the first forty-seven minutes and forty seconds of play. The feisty Raider defense had stymied the much-touted Martin offense, which had previously averaged 34 points a game. Unfortunately, the Crusader defense reciprocated, allowing the Rummel offense only one incursion as far as the Martin twenty-nine. Barrouquere's 33 yard field goal attempt hooked wide to the left, and as the last period wound down, overtime seemed inevitable. However, 'Sader QB Garret Chachere managed to scramble from the Raider nineteen into the endzone with three seconds left to give us our first district loss.

Facing St. Augustine the next week, the three-and-one Raiders were held to only 114 total yards in a rain-drenched mudbath. Rummel was unable to generate any offense, getting no closer to points than the Knights' twenty-three yard line. Their dormancy was interrupted only once, during the final period, when Daussat hit Randy Strassel for a 31 yard completion. The Raiders' luck ran out, however, when Darrin Dares was halted four yards shy of a crucial first down. The clock hit zero with the Knights on top, 12-0.

Strassel snagged a Daussat pass for the first half dozen points. A determined defense stonewalled every Tiger drive, leaving the frustrated felines scoreless. In the second half, Dares, usually a running threat, surprised the cats with a scoring toss to Darryl Perrault, and Ray Rando's scoring run put a cap on the Raiders' 19 point win, locking Rummel into the unexpected tie for top spot in District..

The Raiders were in the playoffs, and a week later they met the powerful Chalmette Owls, who hoped to act as spoilers. However, the birds would have been wiser to stay at home. The Raider defense, flush with their district honors, utterly derailed the vaunted Chalmette offense. The secondary, led by Earl Kilbride, and the linebackers, notably Scott Pittard, deserve special note for shutting down the Owls' passing attack. Offensively, a Daussat to Strassel toss and TD jaunts by Todd Cummins and Franklin Rhea, backed up by three perfect Barrouquere PATs posted twenty-one for the "good guys" while the "bandits" went home scoreless.

Seven days later saw the Raiders take to the road to battle the South Lafourche Tarpons in what, unhappily, would be Rummel's final game. The Tarpons possessed not only the home field advantage but also a considerable edge in size. By halftime the teams were deadlocked at 3-3, thanks to a Barrouquere field goal. The offense had churned out over 100 yards while the defense had given up only 48. However, the third quarter witnessed a 69 yard Tarpon drive, climaxed by a 52 yard TD completion. A second third quarter drive by the fish consumed six minutes and increased their lead, as their fullback scored from the Raider five. Raider attempts to take the lead were in vain, and the clock ticked away the final seconds of both the game and the season.

We hadn't taken State, but an unheralded Raider squad had turned driving determination and superbly-coached execution — coupled with the ultimate secret weapon of Raider Pride — into a football machine which pushed the athletic boundaries of Raider Space far beyond the shortsighted predictions of August's prognosticators.

CROSS COUNTRY

Raider Space is sometimes three miles long — at least it is when you're on the Cross Country Team. It was a disappointing year for the distance runners, as they failed to take any team championships. The season included two fourth place finishes, six third places, and one second place at the Brother Martin tournament.

Individual kudos go to Matt Lopez, who placed tenth in the district championship and qualified for the state competition, and Joe Lindsay, who placed first in the district championship, first in the metro city competition, and an impressive second at the state championships. Coach Ronnie Doyle ended the season with optimism, looking forward to the return of enthusiastic and more experienced runners.

PEP RALLIES

With torrents of high decibel cheering rushing through every cubic foot of space in the gym, pep rallies punctuate the Raider football season. Basketball

It is a world whose space is neatly and symmetrically subdivided by lines both straight and curved, a large, rectangular plain where two five-man armies clash in quest of elusive goals ten feet in the air. For the Raider basketball team, the '85-'86 season witnessed many individual battles won, but the ultimate victory denied.

After a disappointing opening loss to Slidell, the squad demolished both Riverdale and East Jefferson and entered the C.Y.O. Tournament with a 2-1 record. The team beat Abramson, Shaw, Carver, and Bonnabel, but its one loss to Brother Martin forced them to settle for Consolation Winner honors.

The Newman Tournament was next and after two victories over Pope John Paul and South Terrebonne, the Raiders fell to DeLaSalle 69-49. Raider Pride reappeared in the last game as they avenged their season opener loss against Slidell with an overtime victory to finish in third place.

After two quick, pre-Christmas wins over Booker T. Washington and Bonnabel, the Raiders headed west to participate in the Las Vegas Classic. Two close wins over vaunted Bonanza and Wilson were followed by a three-point loss to Rancho and an exciting one-point victory over Coolidge to capture a third place finish for Rummel. With 1985 and the pre-season competition over, the team headed back home to begin regular district play.

A 48-62 drubbing at the hands of the Blue Jays seemed to ignite a fire under the courtsmen, who rolled up four straight wins over Holy Cross, Shaw, Chalmette, and St. Augustine. Nemesis DeLaSalle ended the streak but not the momentum. The Raiders proceeded to knock off Brother Martin and then Jesuit to secure a second place finish in the first round.

The second round began with the Blue Jays getting revenge in overtime, handing the Raiders a 54-57 loss. February brought two victories over Holy Cross and Shaw, but the resultant optimism was short-lived as three losses dashed any hopes for championship honors. Another win over Brother Martin and a loss to Jesuit finished the season, leaving the team with no playoff berth but an impressive 23-11 record.

SENIOR TRIP

Bon voyage! On November 23rd, twenty-eight seniors, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Seghers, escaped a dreary, rainy New Orleans on the S.S. Bermuda Star, bound for the sunny paradise of Key West and Mexico. Labeled the "Great Escape" by senior Rob Cambias, the agenda was a full one, sporting three excursions ashore at Key West, Playa del Carmen, and Cozumel. The voyagers learned not only more about one another but also the joys of snorkeling and the secret of eating six times a day without getting seasick.

BLOOD DRIVE

Raider Space has always been filled with a giving spirit, and in November and March many gave to the annual blood drives sponsored by the Key Club. Kevin Franchina served as chairman and Jim Barger, co-chairman, as about 150 Raiders donated first to the Blood Center and then to Southern Baptist Hospital. Those who donated received a T-shirt and the gratitude of the many they helped.

DANCES

A half-dozen dances spread over the space of nine months offered enthusiastic Raiders the opportunity to display their Terpsichorean skills. Along with the usual Back-to-School Dance, the Homecoming Semi-formal and Sock Hop, and the Spring Dance, the Student Council began a new tradition with a Rummel Day Dance, and the basketball team scored with an "After-the-Game" fete.

BOWLING

The Raider bowling team, with no lettermen or seniors, turned in a surprising third place finish in district. After an initially slow start which left the keglers in sixth place at midseason, the team was rallied by the impressive rolling of Dave Powers and Nicky Marino and cruised to a record of 78 wins and 34 losses. Coach Bob Borne sees next season with great optimism, as the entire squad is returning.

INTRAMURAL VOLLEYBALL

With summer's heat still shouldering its way into Raider Space in October, turning the gym into a cavernous oven, classes clashed in the annual volleyball intramurals. Sponsored by the Student Council and moderated by Mr. Irvin Barousse, the tournament spread itself across four competition-filled nights. Emerging as victors on the upper level were Mr. Boudreaux's "Party Trainers" and on the lower level "The Lizards" carried the banner of Mr. Brown's homeroom to triumph.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Intramurals raged again in the early spring — this time in the form of basketball. Under the moderation of Mr. Arthur Richard, class fivesomes figuratively butted heads in search of the elusive title of school champs. In the freshman-sophomore division, Coach Joe Burkel's "Really Swell Basketball Team" Homeroom (25) defeated the "Garbagemen" of Mr. Jerry Dessauer's (66). The junior-senior division was dominated by Mrs. Shoemaker's "Double R Double D's" (11) who clipped Coach Lanoux's "Lakers" (46) for the title.

SOCCER

After last year's third place finish, soccer coach Br. Al LeBlanc predicted a bright "next year" for the squad. Well, "next year" arrived with a vengeance and Brother Al's prophecy was fulfilled. Beginning the year with eight straight victories, the kickers finally tripped over Shaw and entered the district race 8-1. Seven victories and two ties later, the district championship was theirs. Ben Franklin ruined state hopes, however.

The J.V. squad enjoyed a 14-5 record, finishing with an 8-4 record in district to end as runners-up. A win over Ben Franklin advanced the Raiders to the state championship, where Jesuit stopped the march. Even the junior high team showed promise for the future, as the eighth graders ended their first season 7-7. J.V. coach Mr. Richard Yeadon sees a bright future for the novice players.

Of individual note on the varsity level were team captains Tony Manzella, Sean Maloney, and Dan Vasquez. In addition, Dan Vasquez and Glenn Prechac were selected to the L.I.S.A. All-Tournament Team and Chris Ormand was chosen Manager of the Year. Junior Varsity kickballers Steven Connors, Brett Pansano, Craig Mouney, Vic Kissinger, Mike Blakeman, J. P. Granier, and Kenny Dillenkohfer deserve special mention.

RUMMEL-CHAPELLE VOLLEYBALL

It was a bit of an improvement from last year — not much, but an improvement nonetheless. In the second annual Rummel-Chapelle volleyball challenge, the Raiders' senior team came away with a 2-1 victory over the Chipmunks, and the faculty defeated their Chapelle opposite numbers 2-0. The junior squad, unfortunately, repeated last year's 0-2 drubbing at the Chippies' hands. The most notable improvement was found in the $800 raised by the event for charity.

WRESTLING

The Raider Wrestling Team enjoyed their best year in recent memory. Beginning the year with a second place at the East St. John "Wildcat" Tournament, the team donned their new Parent Boosters-supplied sweatsuits and captured the second spot in district competition, qualifying eleven grapplers for state. With Warren Donley leading the way with a second in the 155-pound class, the matmen captured fourth place at the state level. Lenny Davis again coached the wrestlers, ably assisted by Greg Dornan, and Br. Richard Kovatch moderated.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Scattered over the playing fields and athletic facilities of Rummel, growing Raiders educate their bodies as well as their minds in physical education classes. During the two quarter program, students participate in a variety of individual and team sports and exercises designed to get them into peak condition. In addition, Raiders learn the value of teamwork as they work toward the ideal of a "sound mind in a sound body."

SPEAKERS

Instituted this year was a series of informal talks known as "Brown Bag Lunches." These discussion groups met during lunchtime and generally focused on substance abuse. Most of the sessions were run by experts in the field. The program was organized by Mr. Ohler and Mr. Miller.

Some speakers met with small groups, some with the whole student body. Ranging from recruitment for various organizations to just good information, these breaks in the school day were eagerly awaited.

It was a disappointing season for the Raider courtsmen, finishing with a record of 4-5. According to coach John Hanson, the team had an "expected" season, winning all the matches in which they were favored and losing those in which they were underdogs. SWIMMING

Before breaking the surface for the first time in the '85-'86 season, Raider swimmers chose the theme of "Making Waves" as a metaphor for their future efforts. Coach Annette McDonald's 17-man squad then proceeded to make the figurative literal, as they finished 2-2, their best showing in ten years.

The splashers took third place in the Greater New Orleans Area Swim League, then moved on to city competition, where they harpooned a fourth in the City Relay Meet. Special praise is due the 200-yard medley relay team — L. J. Schmitt, Tyson Selaun, Stephen Douville, and captain Rob Cambias — who finished second in city.

To wrap up the year in style, the squad copped five finalist positions in the state meet at U.N.O. Selaun took second in the 100-yard breaststroke, and Cambias finished in the top ten in that event. The most exciting moment of the year was the 200-yard medley relay, in which the watermen splashed to a third place finish, setting a new school record of 1:46:66.

POWER LIFTING

Reaching for outer space is much more difficult when you're pressing a couple of hundred pounds over your head to do it. Rummel's Power Lifting squad overcame such resistance many times this year to lift themselves to an outstanding year. Coached by Randy Sansone and led by lifters Sean Augustine, Darrin Nepolitano, Duane Bailey, and Robert Pizzolato, the musclemen captured first place in district and second in regionals. LUNCH

Somewhere around midday here in Raider Space comes a screeching halt to most intellectual activities. Be it 3rd, 4th, or 5th period, the fifty-minute breathing space permits class-weary Raiders to relax their intellects and fill their stomachs. Some head to the library, some to the Raider Room or the Commons, but most find their way sooner or later to the cafeteria, where, under the direction of Mrs. Sara Ciaccio, a variety of feasts are prepared.

In the spacious green and white world of diamonds and foul lines, it was a year of "almost" for the Raider baseball team.

A promising pre-season included blowout victories over Ehret, Hammond, and Mondeville and creditable showings in three tournaments.

Second round play was almost a carbon copy of the first, with another initial loss to the St. Charles gang and successive wins over Brother Martin, St. Augustine, Shaw, Chalmette, and Jesuit duplicating earlier efforts. A round-ending upset of Holy Cross threw Rummel into the playoffs, but losses to Holy Cross and Jesuit brought the season to a disappointing end, with the Raiders 11-5 in district play and 19-9 overall.

Though the season itself was frustrating, many individual performances stand out. Pitcher Glenn Scheuermann went 5-4 with an ERA of 2.48 and was named to the All-District team. Scott Hebert finished at 5-1 with an ERA of 2.70. Jay Lucas clipped along with a batting average of .317, and Rob Gerdes hit .423 and was selected to All-District. Top jobs were also delivered by Eric Rice, batting .404 and Darrin Dares, at .509, both of whom were selected to both the All-Metro and All-District teams. In addition, Rice was Honorable Mention All-State, and Dares was First Team All-State.

TRACK

Bounded by a quarter-mile cinder track and filled with speed, strength, and endurance, the world of track and field proved a mixed bag for the Raiders in '86. The junior high team captured fourth place, and the junior varsity, second in both Jefferson Parish and District competition. The varsity cindermen took third in both the Heckel Relays and the Christian Brothers Invitational, fifth in the Blair Rittner Invitational and the Brother Martin Invitational, and third in both Jefferson Parish and District.

Individual merit goes to Brett Pansano, district champ in the pole vault; Steve Rando, All-Metro Pole Vaulter; Joe Lindsey, two mile district champ and All-East Bank Honorable Mention in both the 1600- and 3200-meter runs; and Marius Haydel, East Bank Honorable Mention and District Champion in the hurdles.

NEW SPACE

SPACE . . . Rummel needed space. Almost twenty-five years of successfully educating boys in Jefferson Parish had led to a full-house on the Severn Avenue Campus. More classrooms would be necessary if continued growth was to be possible. As luck would have it, the owner of Stuart Prep School, located across the street, decided to retire. The Stuart campus was purchased and Rummel acquired seventeen classrooms, housed in three buildings, and the fields that adjoin them. With the stroke of a pen Rummel West (Junior High Campus) was born.

ART

Rummel artists both explored outer space and beautified inner space in '85-'86. A field trip to the New Orleans Museum of Art gave members views of works to emulate and various projects made Raider Space nicer to look at. The hall design in the new junior high campus, Rufus and Rumpus on the side of the gym, and the Arch of Triumph in the French room were among several colorful additions to both the inside and outside of the school. Tim Howat was president and Mrs. Jana Jones moderated the group.

BACK TO SCHOOL

"Go West, young man!"

So Rummel did — or at least the eighth and ninth graders undertook the journey. With the acquisition of three new buildings from now-defunct Stuart Prep, Raider space expanded beyond the frontier of the football field. This was the first big change of the '85-'86 school year.

The second came with the advent of the new uniform, actually a selection of several styles of snappy shirts with dark blue trousers. The new look gave the student body a definitely neater appearance.

Aside from the changes, the school year began much as usual, with the organized chaos of book distribution, the solemnity of the first student Mass, and the gym-jamming back-to-school dance.

Better looking — and decidedly bigger — we all began to move again through Raider Space . . .

ACADEMIC GAMES

On the intellectual frontiers of Raider Space, few can challenge the members of the Academic Games team in all-around brain power.

During league play the junior division squad captured 1st, 4th, and 5th places in On-Sets; 1st, 3rd, 6th, and 7th in Equations; 1st, 2nd, 5th, and 8th in Propaganda; and 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 13th in Mr. President. The upperclassmen took 1st, 2nd, and 4th in On-Sets; 1st and 3rd in Equations; 1st, 2nd, and 4th in Propaganda; and 2nd, 3rd, and 8th in Mr. President.

Individual championships on the junior division level were brought home by John Eble in On-Sets, Mehul Sheth and Troy Drewitz in Equations, and Jason Powers and David Spaulding in Propaganda. In the senior division Paul Book was runner-up in On-Sets, and Bhavin Suthar took 4th place; Suthar tied with Chuck Simmons and David Martin for 2nd place in Equations, and Simmons and Martin captured 1st and 3rd respectively in Propaganda. Manuel Dennis placed 1st in Mr. President and David Riche took 5th.

G. Frank Rose, Craig Rieger, and Neil Saia, participate in a snowball fight in the Smokey Mountains.

The squad then moved on to national competition against eight hundred other mental gymnasts in Gatlinburg — with devastating results. The junior division members won the National Sweepstakes title, taking a 2nd in Equations, On-Sets, and Overall Math, a 3rd in Propaganda, and a 6th in Mr. President. Ro Gutierrez emerged as National Champion in On-Sets. The senior members of the team captured the position of runner-up in the National Sweepstakes, securing a 1st in On-sets, 2nd in Equations, Overall Math, and Propaganda, and 6th in Mr. President. Chuck Simmons brought home the National Championship in Overall Math, and Mark Morici and Bill Saussaye tied for 3rd in the same competition.

Under the perennial tutelage of moderator Br. John Larose, the talented contingent had once again pushed the mental borders of Raider Space far beyond the limits of the Severn campus.

Mu Alpha Theta, Rummel's math whizzes, again brought home the bacon, algebraically speaking. Moderated by Mr. Dave Rodriguez, the group participated in two statewide tournaments, winning both team and individual honors.

On the team level, the squad took four first places in Equations and On-Sets, a second in Relay and Ciphering III, and two third places in Ciphering II and Senior Ciphering/Math Bowl. In addition, the competitors captured a sixth in Computers and an eighth and tenth in Chess.

Individual honors went to Paul Book, with a first in Advanced Math and a fourth in the Senior Scholastic Test; Troy Drewitz won fifth in Calculator I and first in Advanced Computation. Ro Gutierrez copped a fourth in Algebra II; Andre Duvoisin, a sixth in Advanced Computation; Mike Cosentino, an eighth in Trigonometry; Joseph Gibbs, a ninth in Advanced Math; Jason Powers, eleventh in Calculator; and Fred Cunningham, a third in the Junior Scholarship Test.

Varsity Quiz Bowl: Craig Collera, Andre duVoisin, Trey Roig, Mark Griswold, Eldon Granier.

VARSITY QUIZ BOWL

A disappointing journey into outer space awaited the Raider Quiz Bowl squad this year. After an outstanding 290-210 defeat of Andrew Jackson High School in the first round, the enthusiastic foursome lost to Central Lafourche 210-205 on the last question of a real nail-biter. Coached again by Ms. Cheryl Morgavi, the team included captain Trey Roig, Mark Griswold, Eldon Granier, and Andre Duvoisin.

RING DAY

The senior ring — it occupies very little space, yet it symbolizes years of work and ambition. On September 20, the 1986 graduates-to-be received these small but important reminders of their status. A ceremony at St. Catherine of Siena, a memorable speech by Mr. Chuck Guajardo, and a holiday began the celebration, and the Ring Dance held at the downtown Sheraton brought the festivities to a rousing conclusion.

FRENCH

Bilingually bridging the gap between inner and outer space, the French Club enjoyed another good year. Halloween brought a masquerade party with the Chapelle club, and soon afterwards, the jeunes hommes took first place in the annual interclub volleyball tourney. Christmas saw the annual Mass and party, and the club collected canned goods to brighten the season for a less-fortunate family in the community. The year ended with a picnic, a traditional French dinner, and, best of all, a jaunt to France in June. Mrs. Marcia Pastorek moderated and Mark Gallardo served as le president.

SPANISH

Led by president Chuck Simmons and moderator Mrs. Angela de Bango, the Spanish Club enjoyed yet another year of exciting activities. Highlights included a tubing trip with the Academics Games Club and the annual interclub volleyball tournament. Some members, accompanied by Mrs. de Bango and Mr. Tilo Gomez, toured Spanish cultural sights in the French Quarter and got a taste of some real Spanish cooking. Before the year ended, the members had also enjoyed a softball tournament and a grande fiesta.

German

Once again a multitude of activities filled the nine-month space of the German Club in '85-'86. Members of the Deutsch Verein, led by president Tom McCarty and moderated by Frau Struppeck, began the year with the October Fest at Deutsches Haus. Other activities included a tubing trip, crayfish boil, and volleyball tournament. The club also produced a play written in German by Frau Struppeck and sent two of its members, Robert Vallecillo and Henry Peeler on a tour of Germany itself.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Coordinating the many activities in both inner and outer space is the job of the Student Council. Among the many things the Council organized were the many on-and off-campus dances, various spirit-raising events, and Rummel Day activities. The most special week of the year for the group, of course, is Student Council Week, which the group fills with a multitude of things for the Raider community to participate in. Mrs. Mary Ann Robarts moderates the ever-active leaders, and Craig Durr served as president.

LIBRARY

With its space pushed to the absolute limit by rapidly multiplying books, the Rummel library awaits the research-bound Raider — or just those in search of leisure-time reading. Under the direction of Mrs. Carmen Guilbeau, assisted by Mr. Young, Mrs. Graham, and Mrs. Wagner, "book central" has grown not only in total volumes but also in research capability, with microfiche and computer-assisted-research available to students. Aiding the staff in their efforts is the Library Club, a dedicated group under the presidency of Joseph Juan, who give much of their spare time to keeping the massive amounts of information straight.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

Boasting a record membership of seventy, the four-year-old Campus Ministry organization continued to set an excellent example of Christian growth for the Raider community. Under the guidance of Br. Louis Welker and Fr. Randy Roux, members participated in forty-four days of recollection, planned and delivered morning prayers, organized music for the senior ring ceremony, helped run the Thanksgiving food drive, and ended the year by assisting with the graduation Mass. Members also visited and consoled families in the Rummel community who had lost relatives during the year, and in the words of Br. Louis, demonstrated their "dedication to the development of men mirroring Christ."

KEY CLUB

Reaching out into the realms of both inner and outer space, the Rummel Key Club continued its mission of service during 1986-1987. The group, moderated by Br. Leo Harvey and Mr. Frank Formusa, worked at the Louise Davis Home and Children's Hospital, and participated in the Adopt-A-Grandparent program. They worked with the Kiwanis Club at the Jazz and Heritage Festival and spent their own time cleaning the bike paths at the lakefront. At home the busy and selfless group worked the concession stands at dances and track meets, sold football programs, and sponsored the annual blood drives. Special praise goes to president Mark Smith, who logged over 700 service hours and David Monk, chosen Key Clubber of the Year.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

With Christmas only three weeks away, the Rummel and Chapelle Student Councils held their third annual Christmas Celebration. Set this year at our sister school, the well-attended evening included scripture readings, caroling, a "Charlie Brown Christmas" skit, and refreshments. CHORUS

Filling Raider Space with harmonious voices, the Raider Chorus sang their way to another successful year. At the Rummel-Chapelle Christmas celebration, they teamed up with the Chapelle Chorale to present a rendition of Handel's Messiah, under the direction of Mrs. Jane Ann Frosch, who trains both groups. The group received a rating of excellent at the LMEA Festival, and select members participated in the school Masses. The year came to a tuneful close with the annual Spring Concert in April. Joey Meehan, Chris Gorman, and Marc Mancuso deserve special recognition for outstanding effort.

GENESIANS

Creating characters, and settings, and worlds of the imagination within the limited space framed by the proscenium, the Genesian Players once again displayed their considerable talents.

In the first production, All the Way Home, early twentieth century Knoxville was brought to life. The touching drama, dealing with life and death and childhood, was presented by an impressive cast of twenty-seven.

BIG BROTHERS

Helping Rummel's new students grow accustomed to all of the intricacies of Raider Space, the Big Brothers, moderated by Br. Richard Kovatch, sponsored numerous activities. Beginning in July with a Mass and swim party, the group moved on to a training session in August to prepare them to meet their charges. NEWSPAPER

Covering the activities of busy Raiders in both inner and outer space, the staff of the Raider's Digest published five issues during the year. The resident journalists were directed by co-editors Steve O'Malley and Gregory Seeling and page editors Tracy Foret and Patrick Sellen. In District Rally competition, reporters Eric Betzer, Wayne Forest, and Steven Doell finished in the top eight in Journalism. Staffers also competed in the Silver Scribe competition, where Michael Cuccia and Chip Morrison took numerous awards. The newshounds were moderated and taught by Mr. Joe Serio.

5-K RACE

The first annual Rummel 5K Race, sponsored by the Parent-Boosters, was run on Saturday, May 10, starting on the school campus. Two different races were held — a one-mile fun run at 8 a.m. and a 5K race at 8:30 a.m. Special trophies were awarded to Rummel students on each grade level who finished first in the races. The event was open to anyone interested in running, with each runner receiving a souvenir T-shirt. In addition to the challenge of running the participants shared post-race refreshments and camaraderie on the school grounds.

SCHEDULING

With the end of one school year looming just over the horizon, three days are set aside to lay the groundwork for the next. Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors report to school on separate days to follow a system similar to that employed by colleges and schedule their classes. The entire process is directed by assistant principal Myles Seghers and involves participation by all departments.

SCIENCE

A year of exploration awaited the members of the Science Club this year. Moderated by Mrs. Mary Shoemaker, the group took field trips to the Audubon Zoo, went on the Manchac Swamp Tour, and camped out on the spillway to view the return of Comet Halley. Michael Sauve served as President of the adventurous group.

Raider Space may see some of its pride extending into outer space if senior Bhavin Suthar has his way. He was selected as one of five finalists in the Space Shuttle Student Involvement Program for his proposed experiment studying the deposition of glycogen in the myocytes of fruit flies in microgravity in comparison with flies on earth on the same diet (Howzat again?). In March, Bhavin and science teacher Mrs. Shoemaker travelled to California to meet with NASA officials to revise his project.

Yearbook

To enclose the memories of nine months in a space small enough to carry in your hands is no easy task, but each year the staff of the Raider yearbook accomplishes just that. Directed by Mr. Bill Arthurs, photographers, layout experts, editors, and writers compile a time capsule of the people and events that — well, you know, you're looking at it. Scott Willis held things together as senior editor, Steve Franz served as photography editor, David Reeder and Tim Favret were layout editors, and Mr. Tom Rice supervised the writers.

JR-SR PROM

The first night of March witnessed the final Junior-Senior Prom. The crisp, beautiful evening fostered an especially well-attended event, with the number of seniors in attendance much increased over last year. Junior class officers Mike Alker, Tony Frey, and Kevin Braud did a great job organizing the event, which was held in the Carondelet Room of the Marriott Hotel. The music of The Classifieds provided the upperclassmen the opportunity to demonstrate their dancing ability with their dates.

Rising costs and lack of senior participation were among the reasons cited for discontinuing the Junior-Senior Soireé. Senior attendance was sparked this year by the fact that it would be the last opportunity for Seniors to attend two Rummel Proms in one year.

RUMMEL DAY

Rummel Day '86 was a celebration of expansion. Its theme of "Twenty-Four Years and Still Growing" focused on how Raider Space has grown and presented ideas on our potential growth in the future. A special guest was Rufus Cressand, an alumnus whose name is immortalized in Rummel's mounted mascot. Mr. Seghers presented plaques to members of the faculty and staff with ten or twenty years of service, and following the Alma Mater, everyone left for a much-anticipated holiday.

SENIOR DAY

As graduation loomed ever closer, the seniors shared one of their last assemblies with the rest of the school on Senior Day. Underscoring the theme Four Years of Friendship That Last a Lifetime, the annual trip down memory lane included reminiscences by members of the class, an electrifying performance by the Trigonometric Brute Force band, a visit from "Lenny and George," and a poignant slide show of senior highlights.

SENIOR PROM

With graduation only thirty-six hours away, Raider seniors met for the last time in a social setting. The Senior Prom was held at the beautiful Canal-Westin Hotel, where the ballroom was filled with the music of "Stone Jamm," the movements of the dancers, and the crystalline reflections of clear balloons on silver threads floating above it all. An added attraction to the festivities was the late night buffet offered to everyone in attendance as the bewitching hour approached.

GRADUATION

The borderline between the inner space of Rummel and the outer space of that world "out there" was crossed by Raider seniors on May 25th, as Rummel held its twenty-first commencement exercises. Celebrated appropriately within the context of the Mass, the graduation was marked by the welcoming address by co-salutatorian William Welsh, the valedictory speech of Bryan Parker, and a truly moving commencement address by Ms. Lynn Silbernagel.

PARENT-BOOSTERS

Once again, the Parent Boosters proved themselves an integral part of Raider Space. Under the presidency of Mr. Chris Delerno, the group financed the new benches in the Raider Room, assisted in the financing of the covered walkway and the new fire alarm system, sponsored the senior graduation breakfast, and inaugurated the annual Rummel 5-K Race.

E. President Ronald Reagan and Soviet Leader Mikhail Gorbachev had a fireside chat in Geneva, Switzerland.

F. Bruce Springsteen reigned as "The Boss" of the music scene.

G. In the first in-flight disaster in 56 manned U.S. space missions, New Hampshire teacher Christa McAuliffe, and six of her fellow NASA crew members were killed.

H. In a year marked by terrorism, this TWA jet with 153 passengers and crew was hijacked in Athens, Greece. One American hostage was killed.

I. Riots were an almost daily occurrence in South Africa as blacks protested the white Apartheid government.

J. Palestinian terrorists hijacked the Italian Liner Achille Lauro in the Mediterranean. One American was killed. After the ship was released, the Egyptian government tried to return the hijackers to the PLO, but American jets intercepted and returned the hijackers to Italy to stand trial.
